

The Richmond Curling Club message board – December 10, 2018

----- WEEKLY 50-50 DRAW -----

The pot was won by Margaret Fortin and the amount was $234.

To participate in the RCC weekly 50-50 draw put $2 in the jar on the side of the bar and sign next to your name in the binder. All club members are in the draw but only those who pay can win. The draw is made every Monday morning with winning names announced on small white board leading to the ice.

----- RCC DATES TO REMEMBER -----

- Friendlies – Richmond vs. Huntley at Huntley (Carp) – December 19, 2018 (9:30 am)
This fun event is a club versus club event. Games start at 10 am at the Huntley Club (Carp) and include a lunch. Room is limited. The signup sheet is on the daytime bulletin board. Cost is $5 to help cover lunch expenses.
- Christmas Break and Ice Maintenance – December 22, 2018 to January 2, 2019
- RCC Garage Sale / Fund Raiser - Saturday, May 11, 2017.
If you are getting rid of items suitable for a garage sale save it until spring and donate it to the club garage sale. More details coming in a separate email.

----- Thank You -----

Thank you to Kathy and Don Beamish, Debbie and Darrell Claydon, and Linda and Gerry Moore for organizing the Reindeer Games Funspiel on Saturday December 5th. Check out the RCC Facebook page for pictures and winners.

----- Clinics -----

- Advanced Clinic – Saturday, January 26, 2019 (9:00 am to 4:00 pm).
Using a variety of aids, tools, and video analysis this clinic builds on what you already know and will further refine your delivery through instant feedback by professional instructors. We will also discuss advanced game play and strategy. This clinic will be advertised and offered to other clubs. The cost is $50 which includes a light lunch.
